PRESENTATION

University Paris II Panthéon-Assas sets a new LL.M. course leading to an LL.M. in EU Economic Law.

The course will be conducted in Thessaloniki at the premises of the Centre of International and European Economic Law (CIEEL).

The proposed course is designed to attract candidates with a strong academic or professional interest in European law, especially from Balkan countries, which are candidates for accession to the EU, as well as to students from Bulgaria and Romania.

The diploma granted to graduates is a "Diplôme d'Université en droit économique de l'U.E. / LL.M. in E.U. Economic Law" of the University Paris II Panthéon-Assas.

The two official teaching languages of the course are French and English. Applicants must be able to use one of the two languages as the main working language (C1 level) and to understand the second teaching language (B2 level).

The duration of the LL.M. is one academic year and comprises two semesters. The students will have 180 hours of teaching per semester.

ADMISSION-SELECTION PROCEDURE

LL.M. is accessible to students with a very good academic level, holding a law degree in their country of origin, with at least 240 ECTS credits.

Candidates submit their application files, including all the necessary information, to CIEEL. Paris II will establish the equivalence of academic qualifications for the admission of candidates.

Deadline for submission: 15.05.2018

For further information regarding applications and submission of your file please visit: www.lmel.org
