◆ Application Submission

○ When/How to Submit

- Application deadline: Applicants must check with the embassies and universities since the submission deadlines may vary between 3~4 weeks.
- An unsuccessful candidate in an Embassy Track can re-apply to a University Track if he or she can meet the application deadline of the re-applying university.
- ☞ First round of successful candidates (whose application documents were sent to NIIED by each embassy) cannot re-apply to a University Track.
- Application submission: applicants must check with the embassies and universities where the first-round selection is conducted since each institute may have different guidelines on application submission.
- Chinese applicants must submit their applications to the China Scholarship Council (CSC) under the Ministry of Education in China, in accordance with the agreement between the government of Korea and the government of China.
- The Czech Republic applicants must submit their applications to the Ministry of Education of the Czech Republic, in accordance with the agreement between the Korean government and the Czech Republic government.

○ Important Notes on Application Documents

- The spelling of the applicant's English name MUST match the name on their passport.
- Applicant's name, date of birth, name of scholarship university and major (field of study) are used in official documents such as NIIED Invitation Letter, Certificate of Admission, Application for Visa Issuance, Flight ticket, etc. Therefore, applicants MUST make sure there are no errors or misspelled words.
- ※ (Important!) There are cases with late visa issuance due to different name (especially middle name) between NIIED Invitation Letter and Application for Visa Issuance. NIIED Invitation Letter will be issued based on the original application document.
- Write the official name of the university and their available majors (field of study) as indicated in the 'University Information' file attached in the application guidelines.
- University Track applicants must choose only ONE university and submit their application documents to the same university they chose.
- Embassy Track applicants must choose THREE different desired universities and available fields of study among 59 universities listed in section 2(II). Of the three selected universities, at least one university should be from Type B.
- ※ (Important!) There are cases with Embassy Track applicants who fail to be selected from all three universities if they choose among highly competitive universities.

- All documents submitted will NOT be returned to the applicants in any case.
- ※ For the applicants who are certain that they will not be able to get their academic documents reissued in the future, we strongly recommend them to submit notarized, apostilled or consular-confirmed academic documents in lieu of original documents.
- Application documents must be submitted in the order of the checklist ('Application Checklist') on the first page of the application forms. Each required document must be numbered and labeled on the top right corner. (ex. 9. Certificate of Bachelor's degree)
- ※ When submitting notarized documents, place the original document before the notarized document.
- All documents should be submitted as a A4 sized document. (210 x 297 millimeters or 8-1/4 x 11-3/4 inches)
- ※ If your document is smaller than a A4 document, attach it on a blank A4 paper. If your document is larger than a A4 document, fold the document to a A4 size.

◆ Application Screening and Evaluation

○ Evaluation Factors

- Selection committee will evaluate application documents and conduct interviews. Various factors shown on the application documents and interviews will be considered in the evaluation.
- Any application documents that are fraudulent, incomplete, or not in accordance with the application guidelines will be disregarded (strictly enforced).

○ Documents to be evaluated

- Academic Transcript, Certificates of Language Proficiency (Korean and/or English)
- Personal Statement, Statement of Purpose (or Research Proposal), Letters of Recommendation
- Awards, Published books & research papers, and etc.

○ Evaluation Preference

- Applicants who hold a TOPIK level 3 or above will be given additional points (10% of the total allocated points).
- Those who submit their certificates of English language proficiency (TOEFL, TOEIC, IELTS) may be given preference based on their test scores.
- Applicants who have Doctoral degrees in the field of Natural Science and Engineering will be given preference in selecting Research program candidates.
- Applicants who apply for majors in the field of Natural Science and Engineering will be given preference when they receive same marks with other candidates.

- Applicants who are currently teaching as a professor in one of the ODA recipient countries listed in section 4(IV) and who hold citizenship of one of those countries will be given preference when they receive same marks with other candidates.
- Descendants of Korean War veterans will be given additional points (5% of the total allocated points).
- Applicants from low-income families or underprivileged background will be given preference.
- Applicants who are confirmed to be the ‘third generation’ or ‘post-third generation’ Overseas Koreans will be given preference.
- Applicants who apply for majors under the Industrial Professional Training Project are given preference when they receive same marks with other candidates.

(Prior Notice) The notice below is effective starting from 2024 GKS-G Selection.

- Extra points will be given to applicants with TOPIK certificate based on their TOPIK level.
- Extra points will be given to applicants with English language proficiency certificate based on their test scores (TOEFL, TOEIC, IELTS)

◆ Medical Assessment

○ Subject for examination

- All applicants who pass the 2nd round of selection

○ Submission of Medical Assessment Result

- All applicants who pass the 2nd round of selection must receive comprehensive medical checkup and submit the certificate of health and medical examination result issued by a medical doctor or a licensed hospital.
- Certificate of health and medical examination result should be submitted by Friday, June 11th. Further guidance will be provided at the time of announcement of 2nd round successful candidates.

○ How Medical Assessment Result will be used

- NIIED will match the certificate of health and medical examination result against Personal Medical Assessment.
- If an applicant is found to be in one of the following conditions, he or she will be disqualified in the final round of selection:

- An applicant is tested positive on drug tests.
 - An applicant who owns serious illness that prevents him or her to study abroad for long period of time including the full duration of degree or research program in Korea.
- After arriving in Korea, all GKS scholars will be subject to a medical examination administered by NIIED. If a GKS scholar is found to have a serious illness that was not stated in the previous medical documents from this medical examination, he or she will be disqualified from their GKS scholarship.

VII. SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

◆ Period of Scholarship
