

Erasmus+

Erasmus+ mobility opportunities

Mobility Day

Faculty of Economics of University of Montenegro

March 6, 2025

Erasmus+ mobility opportunities for students

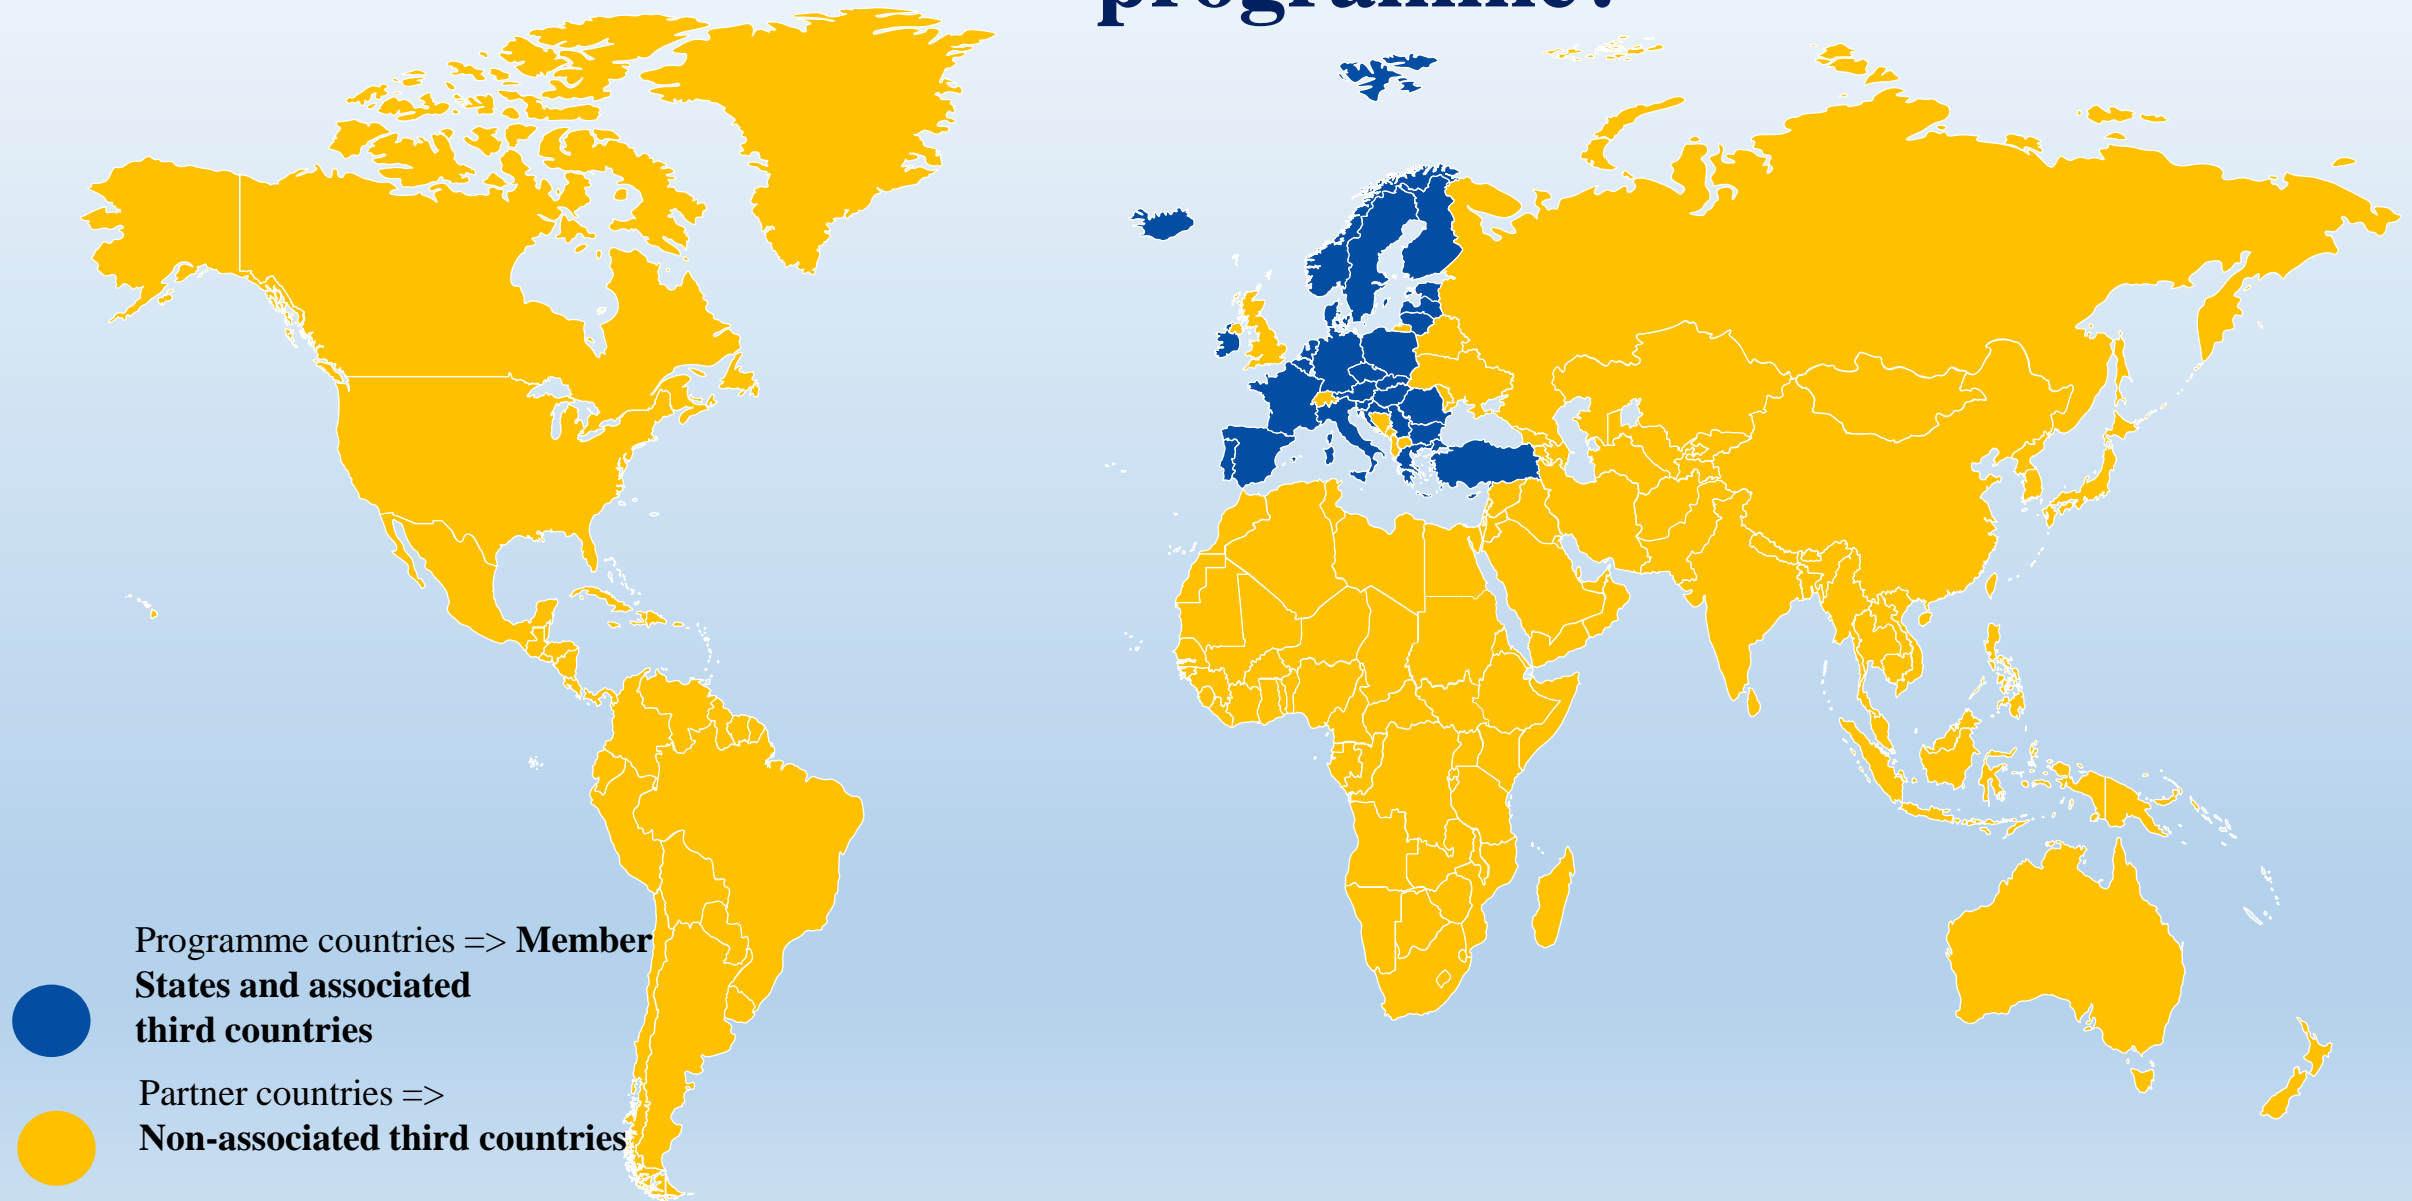

International
Credit
Mobility

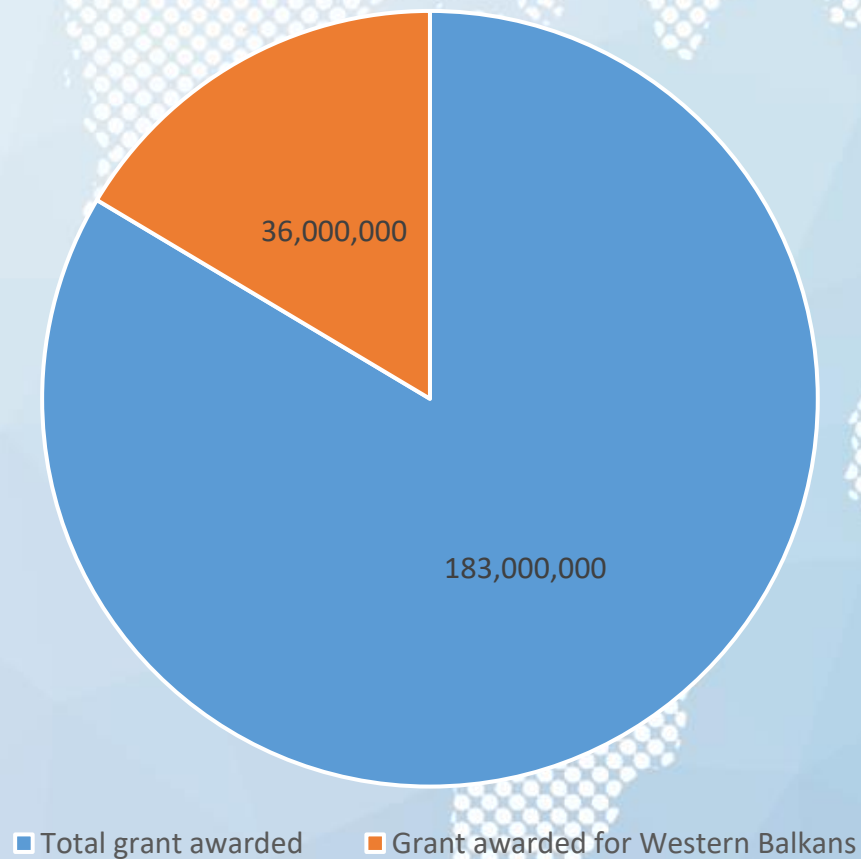

Erasmus
Mundus
Joint
Masters

Virtual exchanges

Where can I study abroad through Erasmus+ programme?

ICM: selection results 2023 and grant awarded

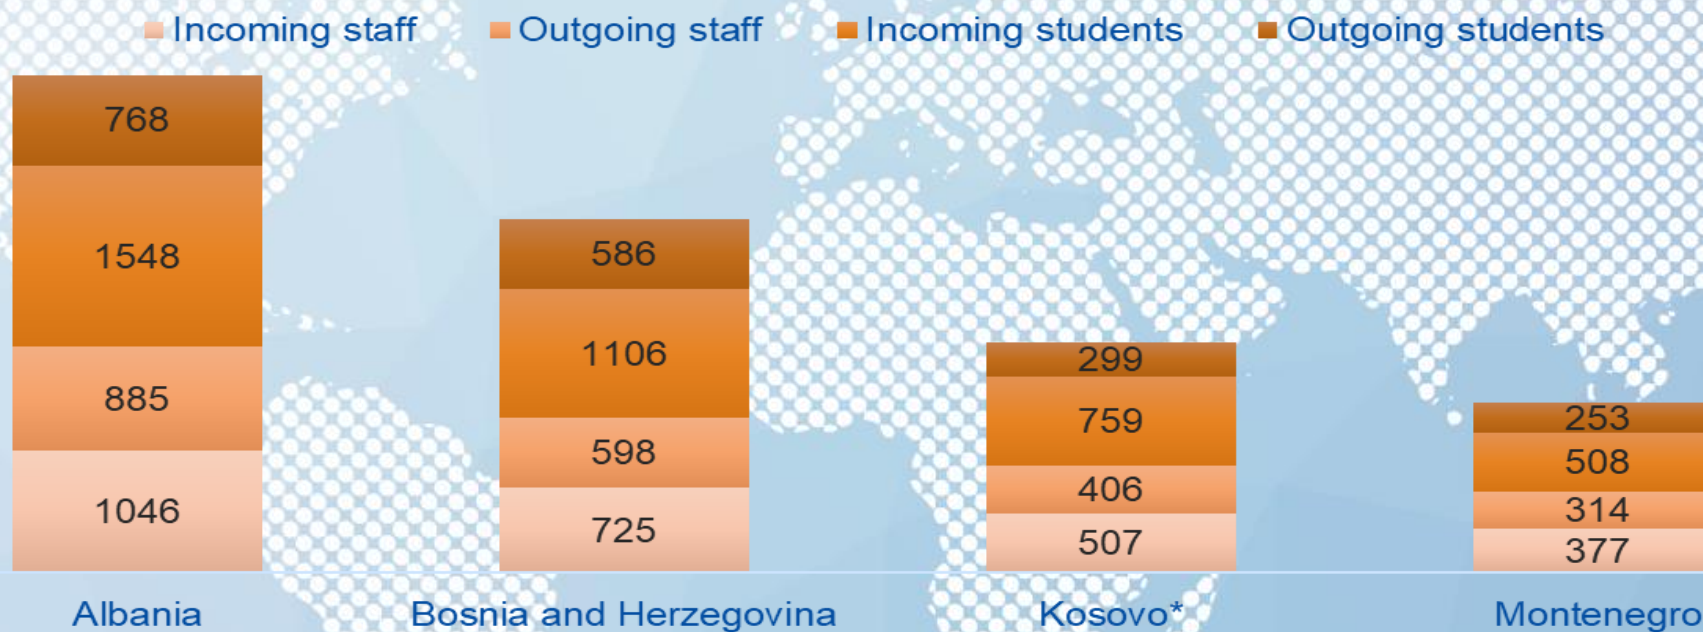

Requested vs available budget for WB

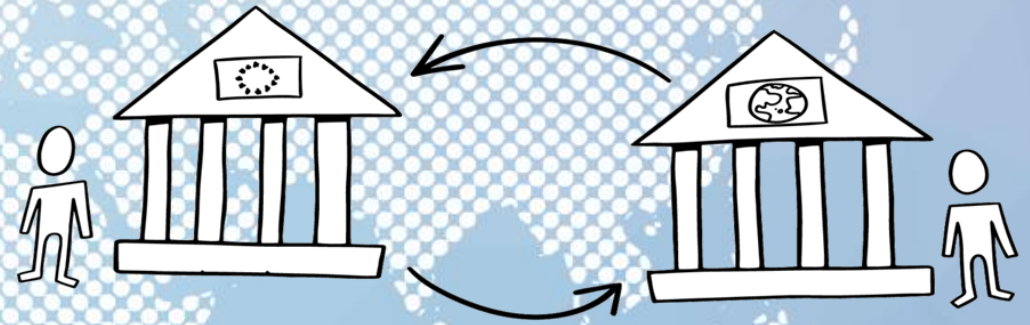

ICM 2023: awarded mobilities for Western Balkans

Awarded mobilities in call 2023

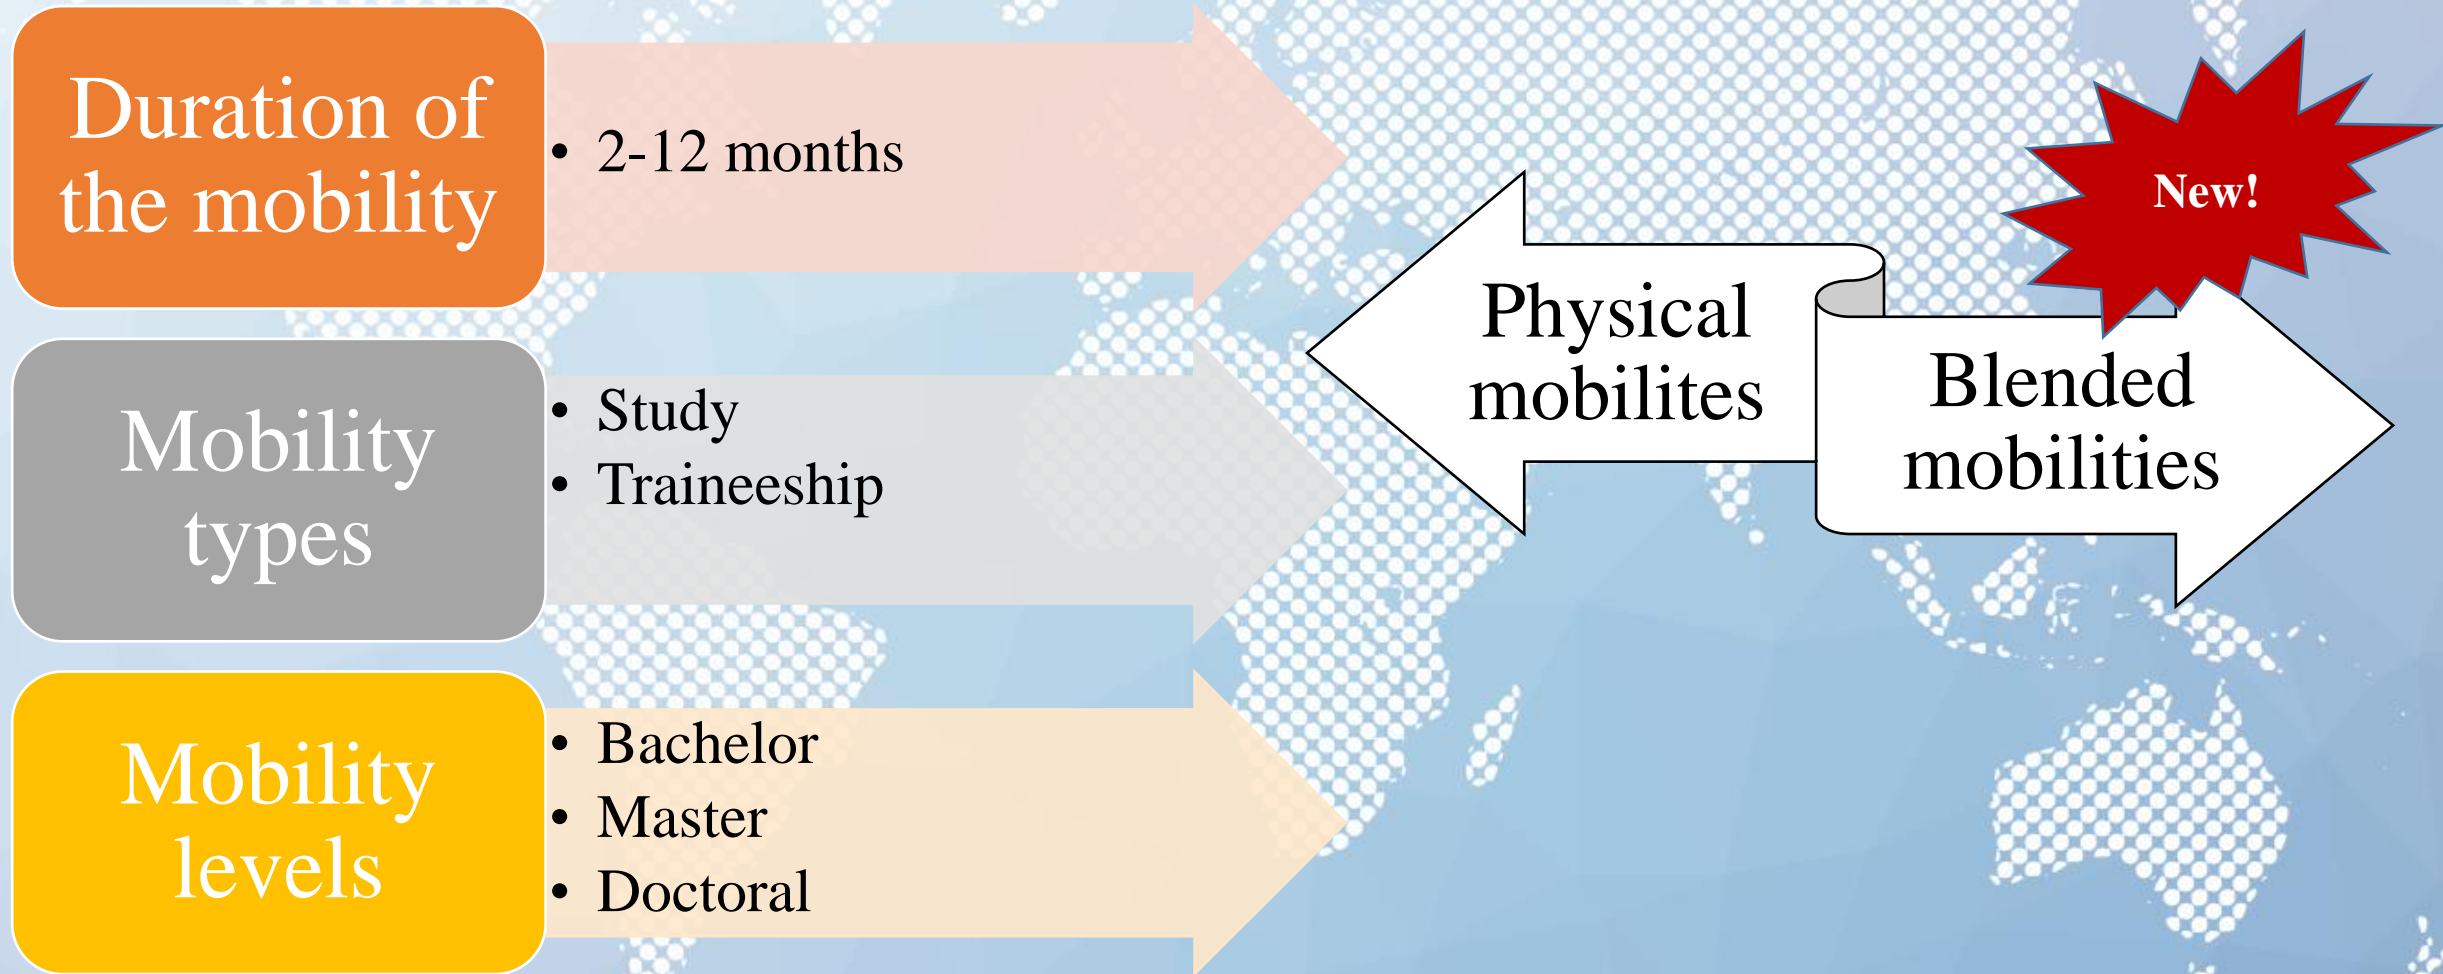

Understanding International Credit Mobility

- Limited period of studying abroad for the purpose of gaining credits.
- International credit mobility projects are based on bilateral agreements between universities in Europe and universities in other parts of the world.
- They agree to send and host each other's students and staff.

What's in for students?

What are the eligibility criteria?

Be registered in a HEI and following studies leading to a recognised degree

Complete the first year of Bachelor studies before applying

Your institution must be located in one of the countries participating in Erasmus + mobility for HE

Fulfill the selection criteria defined by your HEI

What does the scholarship cover?

Tuition fees, travel expenses, and often include covered health insurance. The scholarship also includes the amount intended to cover the cost of living.

Average scholarship: 700 – 900 €

How do I apply for Erasmus+ mobility?

Contact the International Office of your HEI to get informed about the conditions of participation

How to apply?

Check regularly the official website of your faculty/university where the calls are published and prepare the needed documentation

Once selected

What's next?

Learning agreement
(signed between mobility user, sending and receiving institution for study programme definition aims, learning outcomes and credit recognition aims)

Bear in mind: inclusion and diversity

- Ensure equal and equitable access and opportunities to participants from all backgrounds.
- Defining internal selection procedures that take into account equity and inclusion.
- Extra financial support to ensure that a person whose individual physical, mental or health-related conditions are such that his/her participation in Erasmus+ would not be possible without financing extra costs.
- HEIs that have selected students with fewer opportunities can apply for additional grant support to the NA.

Other Erasmus+ opportunities: Erasmus+ Mundus Joint Masters

- Prestigious international masters, jointly designed and delivered by a group of higher education institutions.
- They involve at least 3 institutions from at least 3 different countries, and multiple associated partners from the academic and non-academic world.
- Typically, they include periods of study, research, traineeship, thesis preparation and defence.
- Scholarships available

Erasmus Mundus Catalogue:

https://www.eacea.ec.europa.eu/scholarships/erasmus-mundus-catalogue_en

Why should I be Erasmus+ mobility user?

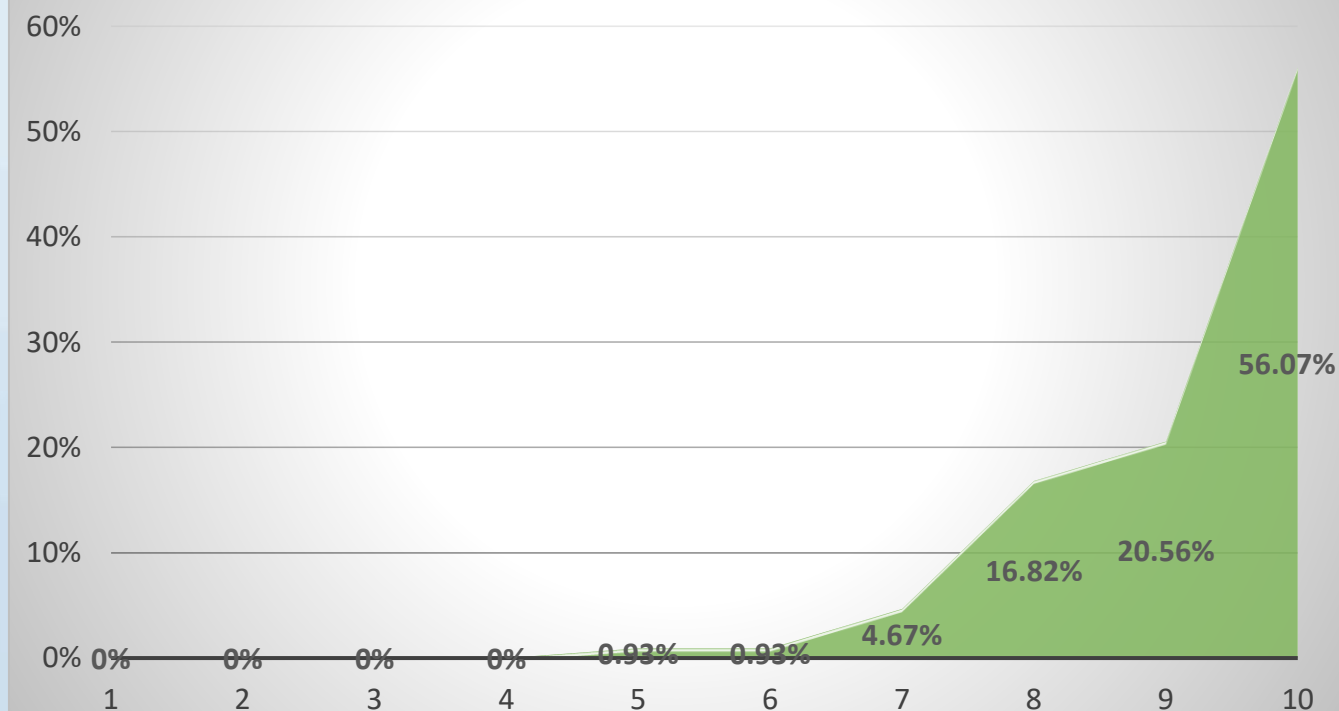

- Expose to different views, knowledge, teaching and research methods as well as work practices in study field
- Develop transversal skills such as communication, language, problem solving, inter-cultural skills and research skills
- Develop forward looking skills, such as digital skills, that will enable to tackle the challenges of today and tomorrow
- Facilitate personal development such as ability to adapt to new situations and self-confidence

Check NEO publication on impact of ICM on the students of Montenegro:

<http://www.erasmusplus.ac.me/wp-content/uploads/Publication-National-Erasmus-Office-in-Montenegro-impact.pdf>

Mobility experience

From 1 to 10, to what extent are you satisfied with your mobility period?

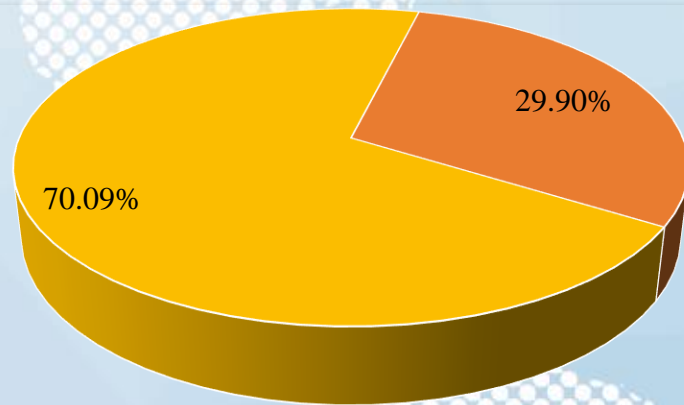

9.23

Average grade of students' satisfaction with their mobility period

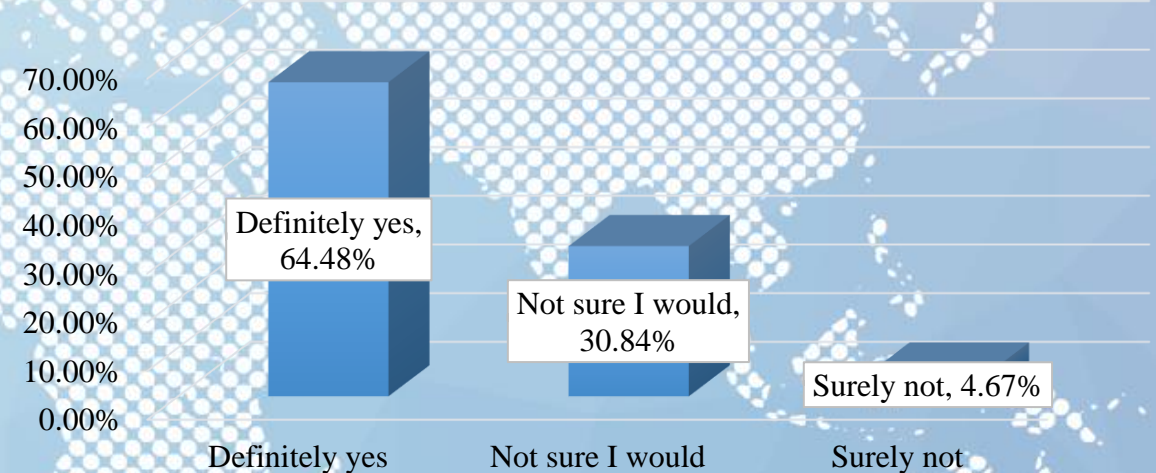

Recognition of credits

When coming back at your home institution, have you faced the obstacle of recognizing credits?

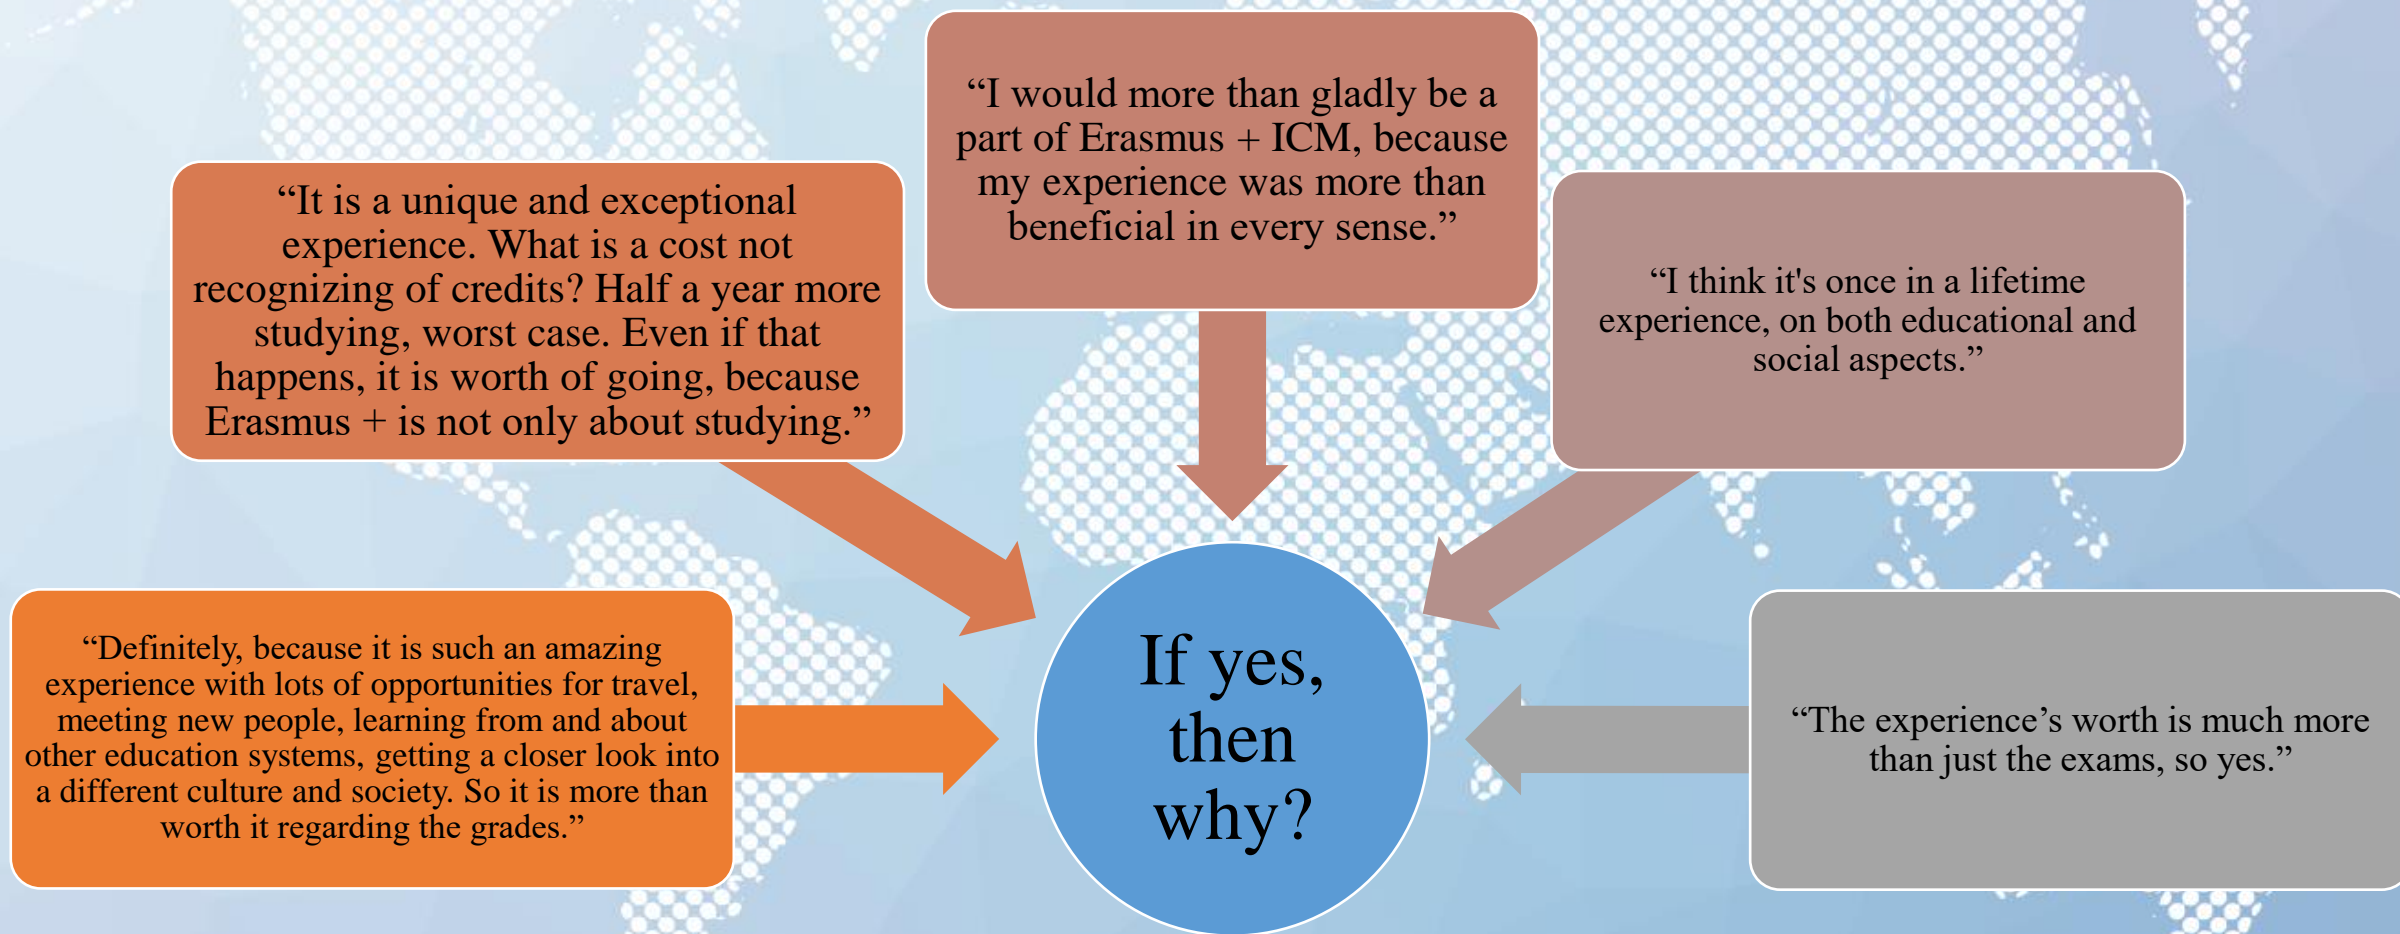

■ Yes, I have ■ No, I haven't

In case you knew that the credits won't be recognized once back, would you still choose to apply?

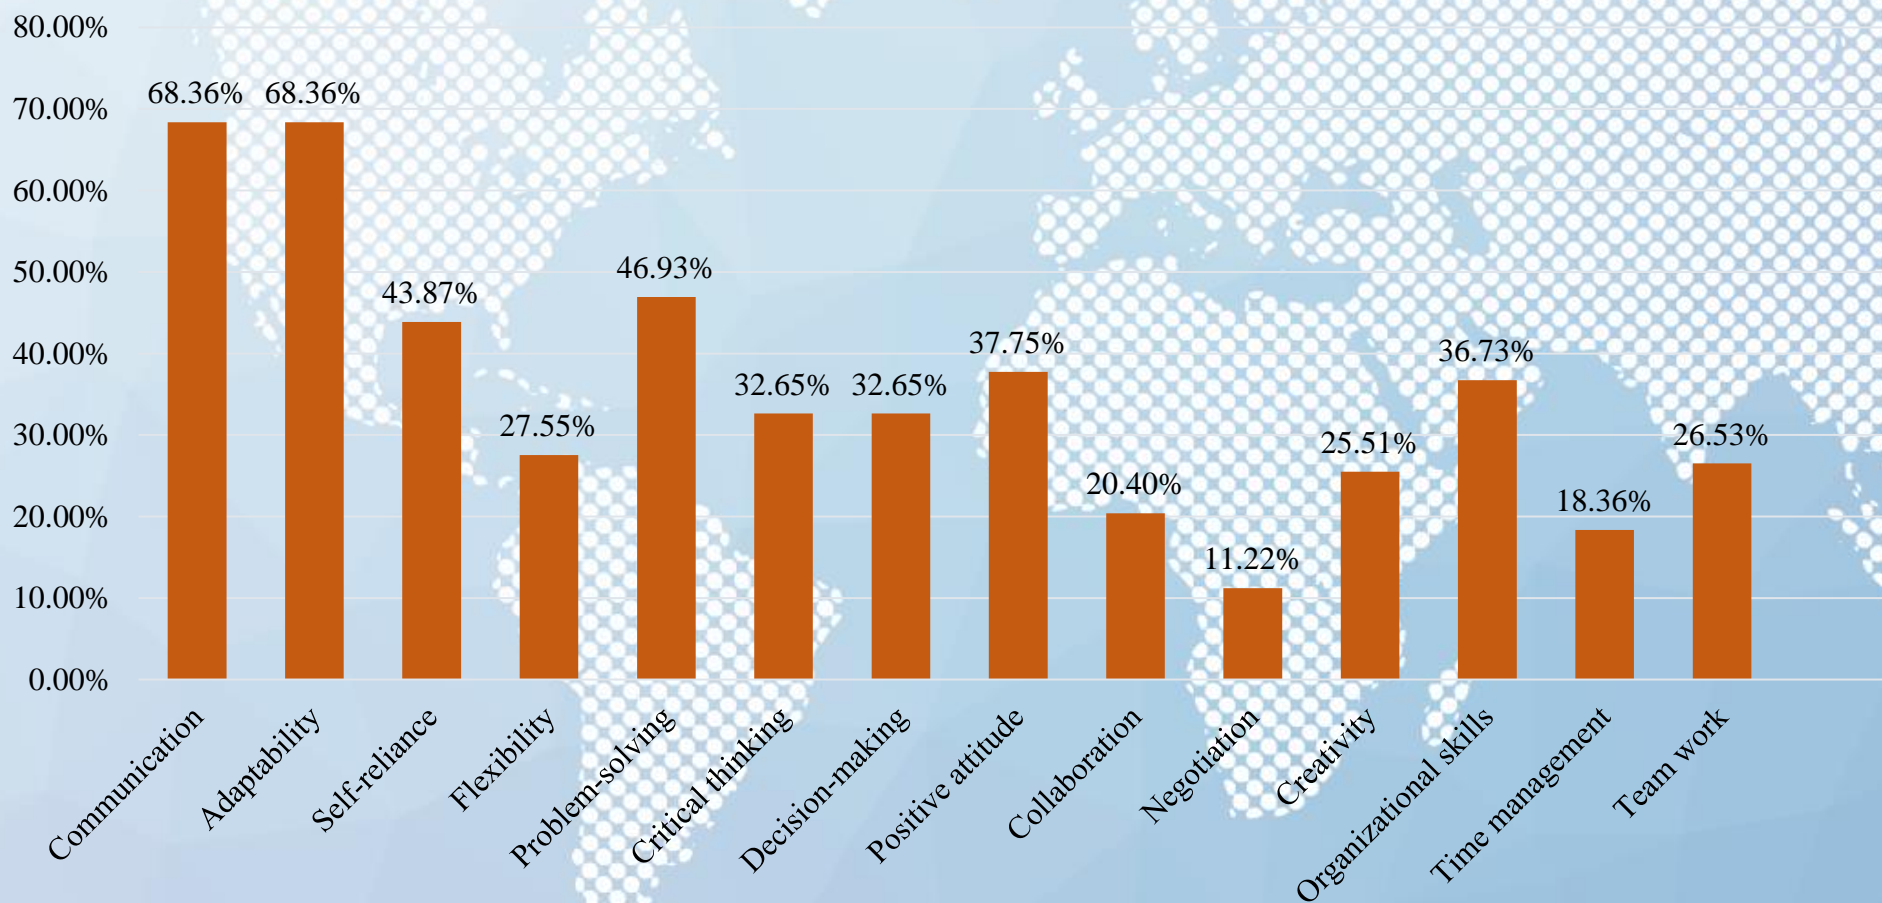

“My home faculty signed all the contracts and all of the credits were supposed to be recognized, but when I got back, there was a different scenario.”

In case you knew that the credits won't be recognized once back, would you still choose to apply?

Impact at personal level

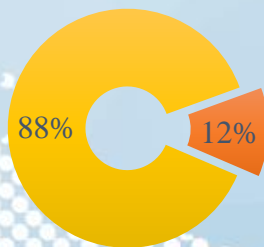

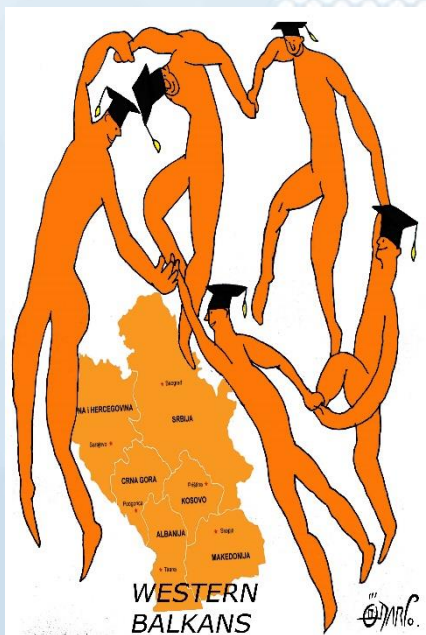

Pick top 5 soft skills gained during mobility

Impact at personal level: cultural aspects

Did you have prejudices about the nation and culture of the hosting country prior to mobility period?

■ Yes, I had ■ No, I didn't have

"I thought German people are cold and unfriendly, but I realized that that was not true when I was living there."

"I imagined Turkish people to be very introverted and not helpful to others. I made sure that it's actually quite the opposite, they are very happy to help others and are a more open-minded nation that I expected."

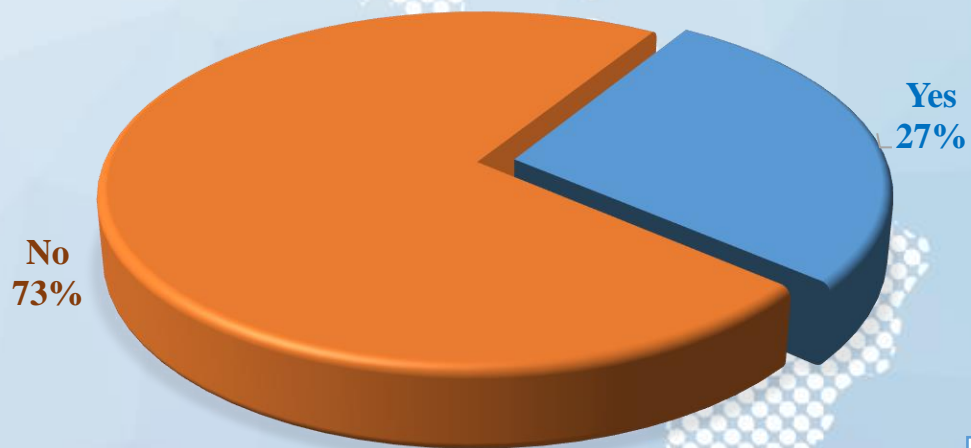

"I've perceived Polish people as cold and distant before going to Warsaw on mobility, but during that period I was proven otherwise. Also, I was amazed by their progress in economic and technology terms, since I've expected Eastern Europe feel to the country."

"Image of Bulgaria that media sometimes present I don't find very true because in Bulgaria there are so many beautiful things to see, starting from nature beauty to people that are mostly kind and helpful."

"I made friends that completely changed my perception of Germans and the Western Europe generally. I thought they were cold people but it is not true."

Impact at professional level

DID MOBILITY PERIOD HELP YOU FIND A JOB?

“ [...] all the time on the interviews my mobility experience was something that interviewers found interesting, would like to talk about and made me different from other candidates.”

“Learning how to deal with different cultures, respecting and understanding them and learning a new language, opens the doors everywhere.”

“I was hired by an international non- governmental organization thanks to my Erasmus experience.”

“International organizations or companies are more than often looking to employ people who have had an international experience aboard and that can work in an multicultural environment.”

“All of my employers particularly appreciated my international mobility, as it demonstrated unique skill set that I gained [...]”

“ [...] people love employees who have seen the world and have the world within themselves.”

“Of course. [...] In this way you have more arguments on popular interview question ‘Why should we choose you’.”

Erasmus+

Impact at institutional level

In case you had possibilities to bring changes at your home institution, what would you change (based on your mobility experience)?

Mandatory internships in order to gain practical knowledge

Fostering essay and research writing

Modernize the literature

Change the theoretical approach of teaching: increase the practical aspect of studying

Encouraging group work

Case studies: analyzing recent developments of the respective field during classes

Improve student-professor communication

Introduction of courses lectured in English language

Building research capacities

Free courses for foreign languages

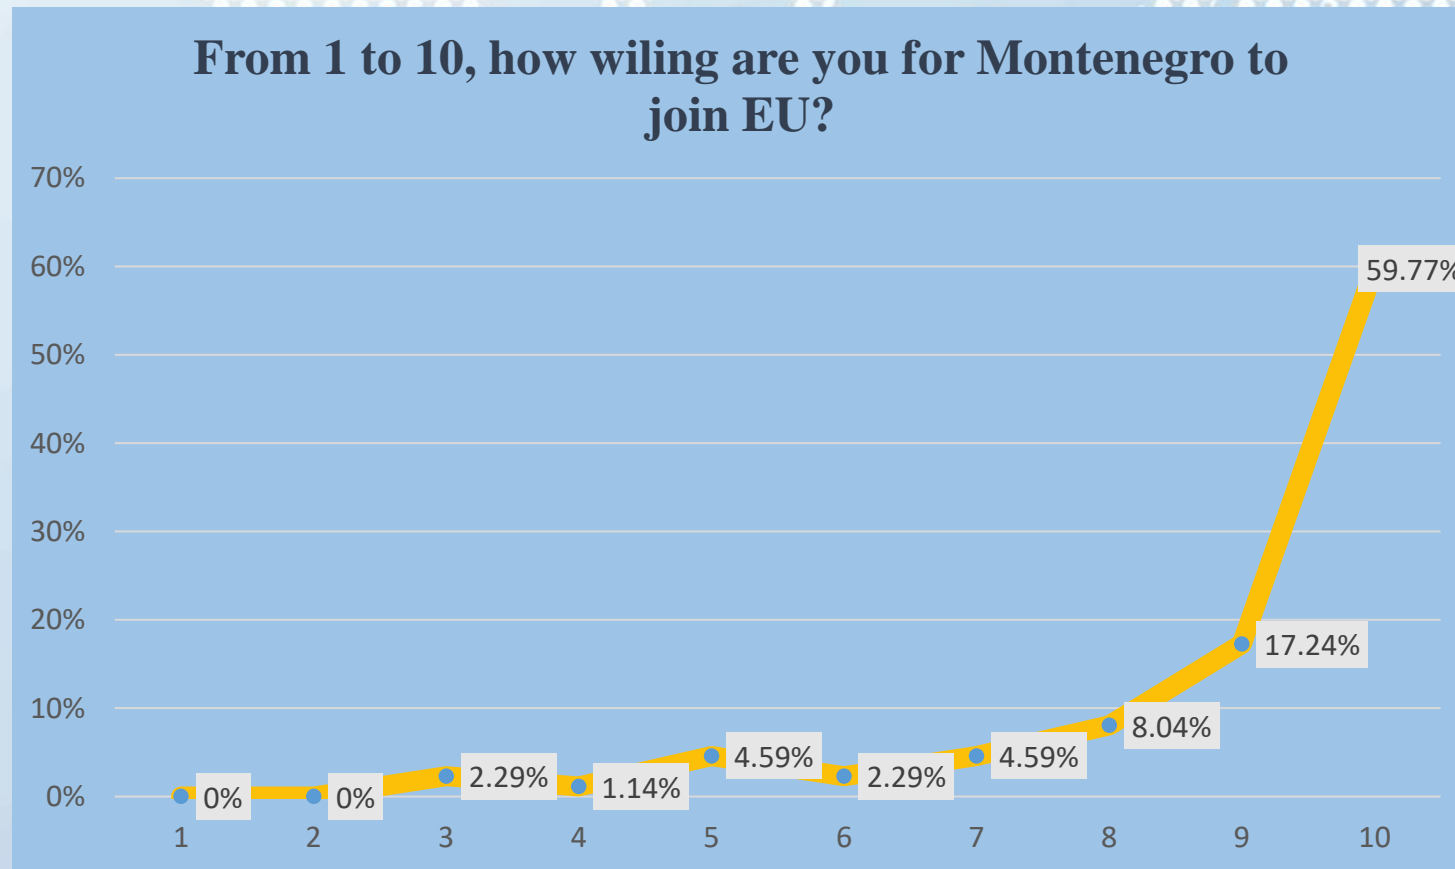

Interactive lectures: student-professor discussion

Organization of workshops

Increase the use of Moodle Platform

Introducing project work and encouraging the students participation in them

Spill over impact: EU accession

Erasmus+ mobility students' average grade on willingness to join EU

Erasmus+

Erasmus+ students' recommendations

Don't be afraid and seek for opportunities. Go for new experiences!

Don't be afraid of a change!

Do the exchange because it's a life changing experience that you can learn a lot from.

Less think, just do it!

Don't waste this unique opportunity and apply for Erasmus+!

Go out of your comfort zone and rise wiser and stronger!

Take the chance and enjoy life as an Erasmus+ student.

Let that be your biggest adventure.

Take a chance and make yourself happy. Make a change in your life. You won't regret!

If you are thinking to apply for this kind of exchange, do it immediately because this experience can only improve you in many ways.

If you want to expand your personal and professional skills, this is a great opportunity.

Be brave!

Erasmus+

Thank you for your attention!

National Erasmus+ Office in Montenegro

Office address: Jovana Tomaševića 15, 81000 Podgorica

Phone: +382 20 223 087

E-mail: erasmusmontenegro@ac.me

Web site: www.erasmusplus.ac.me