

Conservation Summer School „Stone Stories“

Location: Trebinje (Ljubomir, Vrpolje), Bosnia and Herzegovina

Date: August 2021

One week Summer School for students and young experts (conservation, architecture, art history, archaeology, history, etc).

Starting with the look at the cultural heritage diversity of the Balkans (focused on territories of Republika Srpska and Serbia).

Investigating the site of the Church of St. Joakim and Ana in Ljubomir and the surrounding Middle Ages necropolis.

Recording and documentation lectures and field work, followed by basic conservation principles and methodology classes in theory and practice.

Additional special tours to the Museum of Trebinje and other sites nearby.

Lecturers and trainers from Serbia and Republika Srpska.

- *Suggested donation for participation: 500 EUR
- All applicants will be considered for a scholarship
- FondAR scholarships (full and partial) will be available for participants (excluding airfare/travel expenses and 50 EUR membership for 2021)*

*NOTE: if the applicant is awarded full scholarship, the amount that he or she is obliged to pay is 50 EUR;
if the applicant is awarded partial scholarship, the amount that he or she is obliged to pay is 250 EUR*

Spaces for this summer school are limited, so please apply early!

The application deadline is May 28, 2021

For further details you can contact us at fondar.nis@gmail.com

To apply for this workshop please submit the following documents by email at fondar.nis@gmail.com:

- CV (up to 1000 words)
- Personal statement (explaining your interest in this specific program, up to 300 words – with the special note if you are applying for the scholarship)
- Recommendation letter (sent to our email by the person that recommends you)