

Course Title:		CIVIL PROCEDURAL LAW
Course code	Course status	Semester	Number of ECTS credit	Class load
	mandatory	V	6	4+1
Study program: Basic academic studies at the Faculty of Law
Prerequisites: none
Course objectives: Introducing students to the institutes, terms, and principles of civil procedural law in order to acquire usable knowledge.
First and last name of the teacher: Assistant Professor Velibor Korać.
Study methods: Lectures, exercises, seminar classes, discussions, and individual activities. Practical teaching (writing submissions, legal documents, analysis of case law).
TEACHING PLAN
I week II week III week IV week V week VI week VII week VIII week IX week X week XI week XII week XIII week XIV week XV week XVII - XX	Delimitation of the subject matter. Sources of Civil Procedure Law (including a brief historical perspective). Characteristics of the procedure. The basic principles of Civil procedure. Fundamental Guarantees. Judicial Organization. The Courts and Their Members. The Bar. Jurisdiction. Action and Claims. Claims and Defences. Proceedings in First Instance. Introduction of the claim. Progress of the proceedings. Midterm (colloquium). Judgment. Provisional proceedings. Review Proceedings. Appeal. Revision. Other extraordinary legal remedies. Incidents. Evidence. Particular Proceedings (Payment order, Small claims procedure, Procedure in commercial litigation, Procedure in labor litigation, Procedure in possession disputes, Procedure in family law matters). Enforcement of judgments; Out of court dispute resolution
Students' obligations: Attendance and active participation in classes
Literature: 1) Compulsory literature: Velibor Korać, Montenegro – Civil Procedure (in International Encyclopedia of Law Series), Kluwer Law International BV, Alphen Aan Den Rijn, 2023; Đuričin/Korać, Praktikum za parnični postupak , Podgorica 2023. 2) Supplementary literature: - ELI- Unidroit Model European Rules of Civil procedure – From Transnational Principles to European Rules of Civil Procedure, Oxford 2021 - Poznić/Vodinelić, Građansko procesno pravo , Beograd 2015 - Triva/Dika, Građansko parnično procesno pravo , Zagreb 2004; - Rosenberg/Schwab/Gottwald, Zivilprozessrecht , München 2010.
Examination methods and grades: Seminar up to 10 points Midterm up to 40 points Final exam up to 50 points Grades depending on the total number of points: E (50-59); D (60-69); C (70-79); B (80-89); A (90-100)
Special indications for the course: None

Learning outcomes. After the student passes this exam, he or she will be able to: recognize the meaning and explain the meaning of the most important institutes of civil procedural law and distinguish (and explain) the basic principles of contentious, non-contentious and enforcement proceedings; understands the meaning, significance and function of civil court proceedings and its institutes, perceives the influence of principles and standards in providing legal protection, recognizes the meaning and spirit of legal norms; to qualify and solve procedural legal problems; explain the purpose of litigation, non-litigation and enforcement procedures; explain the method of drafting legal documents; distinguishes the problems of civil procedure in case law; explain changes in legislation regarding civil proceedings; recognizes the various activities of the court and other bodies that participate in the administration of justice in the process of providing legal protection.