

CRIMINAL LAW OF THE EUROPEAN UNION

The aim of the course is to transfer knowledge to students about supranational European criminal law, the study of EU criminal law sources and their legal effect on national legal orders.

From this course, students gain the specialist knowledge needed by judges, public prosecutors, police officers, lawyers and other professions involved in EU criminal law cooperation, as well as researchers involved in judicial and police cooperation.

Course content:

The concept, subject, task and methods of EU Criminal Law;

Creating substantive EU criminal law through the process of harmonization of national criminal rights;

The concept and development of substantive criminal law in the EU

the content of substantive EU criminal law and the mechanisms for its creation

The Lisbon Treaty and substantive criminal law in the EU

Joint fight against serious crime

Fight against terrorism

Fight against organized crime

Suppression of money laundering and financial crime in the EU

Fighting corruption

Combating trafficking in human beings

Suppression of drug abuse

The concept and development of EU criminal procedure law

Content of EU criminal procedure law and mechanisms for its creation

Judicial cooperation in criminal matters

The role of the European Court of Justice in the field of criminal law

European Public Prosecutor's Office

European Judicial Network for Criminal Matters

Protection of victims of crime

Literature;

Vervaele John, European Criminal Law and General Principles of Union Law, HLJZKPIP, 2005,

Satzger Helmut, The Impact of EU Law on Member States' National Criminal Law, 2003,

Đurđević; Karas (eds.); European Criminal Procedure Law in Service of Protection of European Union Financial Interests: State of Play and Challenges; Croatian Association of European Criminal Law, Zagreb (2016)

Rakočević Velimir, EU Criminal Law, Podgorica, 2018.