

Polish-European School of Law International Intensive Curriculum

Great opportunity for Bachelor, Master or PhD Students!

If you study in the field of:

- law
- economics
- accounting
- finance or related courses

You are invited to participate in the Polish-European School of Law - International Intensive Curriculum at the University of Białystok (Poland).

We offer:

- Free of charge course conducted in the blended form: 2 weeks of online classes and 2 weeks of stationery classes at the University of Białystok
- Interesting and attractive lectures
- Scholarship in amount of 5000 PLN (aprox. 1060 EUR)
- Co-financing of the costs of urban transport
- Interesting cultural program, as part of the course, with trips to regional monuments.

Polish-European School of Law is the International Intensive Curriculum it consists of 50 lesson hours of very interesting classes in the Polish and European law and elements of economy, in particular: constitutional law and the Polish system, administrative law, economic and customs law, elements of civil law, elements of criminal law.

The program includes also issues from European law, in particular the sources of European Union law, principles of EU law, European Union bodies, citizenship of the European Union, the Visa Code, the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights, the European Higher Education Area and others. In the economic part, the program covers the basics of economics and business, free movement of goods within the European Union, economic relations of the European Union with associated countries, with particular emphasis on access to the common market.

Detailed information and recruitment:

International Cooperation Office
University of Białystok
ul. Świerkowa 20B, 15-328 Białystok, Poland
tel. +48 85 745 70 19

Coordinator: Piotr Białas
e-mail: p.bialas@uwb.edu.pl
p.bialas@pracownik.uwb.edu.pl
www.uwb.edu.pl/spinaker

