GENERAL INFORMATION

The main language of communication will be English. We therefore expect participants to possess a good command of English.

Participants will receive funding through the ERASMUS+ programme with partner countries. In order to receive funding participants need to take part in all compulsory activities. The total amount of funding will be 1115 EUR.

We expect participants to arrive in Freiberg on Sunday, 24 June. The staff week will finish on Friday, 29 June at noon.

TU Bergakademie Freiberg doesn't book flights, hotels nor transport to and from Freiberg. A limited number of hotel rooms have been reserved at the Hotel am Obermarkt, if you are interested, please tick the appropriate box at the registration form. Participants are expected to cover their travel, accommodation and daily allowance expenses from the ERASMUS+ funds. Please note that this money will be paid upon arrival.

Do not book hotels or flights before your participation has been confirmed! Guidance on travel and accommodation will be provided once your participation has been confirmed.

Registration is open until to 31 May.

We are looking forward to meeting you in Freiberg!
