

Course title: Theatrical production 3

Type of study programme: Academic studies, bachelor studies, 180 ECTS

Study programme: Drama and Theatre

ECTS: 8

Course status: compulsory

Year of study: third

Semester: 5

Lesson hours per week: 2+4 (lectures+practical exercises)

Language of instruction: English

Course outline

Understanding the process of creating a theater play through the methodology of making a theater project.

Course content

- Theater project production
- Elements and types of production process, the origin of theatrical performance
- Financial aspects of production - calculation of a theatrical performance
- Personnel plan and teamwork within the theater project
- Control function in the theater and in project work
- Theater project management
- Theater institution management
- Case studies - analysis of theater projects
- Placement of a theater project
- Methodology of making a theater project
- Methodology of making a theater project
- Methodology of making a theater project III
- Methodology of making a theater project IV
- Theater project marketing
- PR of a theater project
- Presentation of the selected theater project

Assessment

Participation and activities in exercises, workshops and forums - 10 points

Preparation of exercises and seminar work - project (colloquium) - 40 points (20 + 20)

Final exam - 50 points / TOTAL 100 - passing grade is obtained if the number of points during the semester is 51.

Learning outcomes

students will be able to: understand and master the technological chain of theater performance, master the key financial, financial and human resources aspects; recognize control mechanisms and evaluation system; plan activities and prepare a study for the development of a theater project.