

Faculty of Economics / Ekonomija (2017.) /

Prerequisites
Aims	Learning about the history of European integration, the significance, development and ways of implementation of the EU's common policies, policies with divided competences and policies that the Member states control; Learning about the European monetary union, common agricultural policy, customs union and the EU's development policy.
Lecturer / Teaching assistant	Prof. Nikola Milovic, Ph.D. Milica Muhadinovic, MSc
Method	Lectures, exercises, essays, exam, consultations, debates during exercises and presentation of essays from selected specific areas.
Week 1, lectures	European integration history and significance; Size and strength of the EU economy
Week 1, exercises	EU economy in numbers
Week 2, lectures	EU common policies and competencies according to the Lisbon Treaty
Week 2, exercises	Quiz
Week 3, lectures	EUs Customs union
Week 3, exercises	Customs union in numbers
Week 4, lectures	EU Common Market
Week 4, exercises	EU Common Market in numbers
Week 5, lectures	EU Competition Policy
Week 5, exercises	Essay Seminars
Week 6, lectures	EU Budget
Week 6, exercises	Test 1
Week 7, lectures	European monetary Union - EMU
Week 7, exercises	EMU criteria
Week 8, lectures	Common agricultural policy (CAP)
Week 8, exercises	CAP significance for the EU
Week 9, lectures	Tax harmonisation in EU
Week 9, exercises	Taxes in EU Member States
Week 10, lectures	Corrective test
Week 10, exercises	Quiz
Week 11, lectures	Environment protection and fisheries policy
Week 11, exercises	SDGs in EU
Week 12, lectures	Education policy and vocational training
Week 12, exercises	Essay Seminar presentations
Week 13, lectures	Energy and transport policy
Week 13, exercises	Seminar presentations
Week 14, lectures	Research and technical development
Week 14, exercises	Seminar presentations
Week 15, lectures	EU after Lisbon Treaty: economy
Week 15, exercises	Seminar presentations
Student obligations	Attending lectures, active participation during the exercises, writing essays and presenting them.
Consultations	Prof. Nikola Milović, Ph.D., Wednesday 10-11h, Kabinet 111, 1st floor, nmilovic@ucg.ac.me; Milica Muhadinović, MSc, Thursday, 11:30-13:00h, 414, IVth floor; milicamuhadinovic@gmail.com
Workload	/
Literature
Examination methods
Special remarks

Comment
Learning outcomes	After passing this exam, the student will be able to: -define basic terms of the EU economy; -recognize the EU's position in modern economic processes; -differentiate EU's economic policy instruments; -connect the development of EU's economy with the development of the Montenegrin economy; -evaluate basic elements of economic policies and their coordination in the EU.