

Faculty of Tourism and Hospitality / Turizam /

Prerequisites	Does not have
Aims	Introducing students with: the essence of mass, alternative, special interest tourism and niche tourism, understanding the basic concepts related to selective tourism, understanding the essence of health, nautical, sport, ecotourism, adventure, business, cultural, agritourism, gastronomic, religious, hunting, fishing, educational, shopping, gambling, sex and dark tourism, and strategic management development concept of selective tourism destination.
Lecturer / Teaching assistant	Prof. dr Aleksa Š. Vučetić
Metdod	Lectures and exercises in education, consultations, regular and remedial colloquium, and final and remedial final exam.
Week 1, lectures	Introducing students to the course and methods of teaching and assessment
Week 1, exercises	Introducing students to the course and methods of teaching and assessment
Week 2, lectures	Mass, alternative, special interest tourism and niche tourism
Week 2, exercises	Mass, alternative, special interest tourism and niche tourism
Week 3, lectures	Selective tourism - definitions, types, demand and supply
Week 3, exercises	Selective tourism - definitions, types, demand and supply
Week 4, lectures	Health and nautical tourism
Week 4, exercises	Health and nautical tourism
Week 5, lectures	Sport and ecotourism
Week 5, exercises	Sport and ecotourism
Week 6, lectures	Adventure and business tourism
Week 6, exercises	Adventure and business tourism
Week 7, lectures	Colloquium and remedial colloquium
Week 7, exercises	Colloquium and remedial colloquium
Week 8, lectures	Cultural and agritourism
Week 8, exercises	Cultural and agritourism
Week 9, lectures	Gastronomic and religious tourism
Week 9, exercises	Gastronomic and religious tourism
Week 10, lectures	Hunting and fishing tourism
Week 10, exercises	Hunting and fishing tourism
Week 11, lectures	Educational and shopping tourism
Week 11, exercises	Educational and shopping tourism
Week 12, lectures	Gambling, sex and dark tourism
Week 12, exercises	Gambling, sex and dark tourism
Week 13, lectures	Managing concept of selective tourism development
Week 13, exercises	Managing concept of selective tourism development
Week 14, lectures	Renewal of teaching materials and introduction to the final exam
Week 14, exercises	Renewal of teaching materials and introduction to the final exam
Week 15, lectures	Final exam and remedial final exam
Week 15, exercises	Final exam and remedial final exam
Student obligations	Students are required to attend classes and exercises, do a colloquium and final exam.
Consultations	After the lecturers
Workload	7 ETCS x 40/30 = 9 hours and 30 minutes Structure: - 2 hours and 15 minutes of lecturing - 1 hour and 30 minutes of exercises - 5 hours and 45 minutes of individual work, including consultations
Literature

Examination methods	Colloquium - 50 points and final exam - 50 points. The passing grade is obtained with 50 points.
Special remarks	The colloquium consists of 50 questions that are scored with +1 points. The final exam consists of 50 questions that are scored with +1 points.
Comment	Does not have
Learning outcomes	Ability to: understanding of concepts related to selective tourism and special types of selective tourism - health, nautical, sport, ecotourism, adventure, business, cultural, agritourism, gastronomic, religious, hunting, fishing, educational, shopping, gambling, sex and dark tourism; understanding the supply and demand in special types of selective tourism; creating offers within special types of selective tourism; and strategic management of the development of special types of selective tourism in selective tourism destinations.