Faculty of Maritime Studies Kotor         Study program: Marine Engineering         Type and level of studies: Undergraduate studies         Course unit: English Language II         Teacher in charge: Milena Dzeverdanovic Pejovic, Associate Professor         Language of instruction: English         ECTS: 3         Course Load: 2L+1E+0P         Semester: Summer         Course unit objective         The course and its to enable the students to successfully communicate and follow literature in English, according STCW'10 and IMO 7.02 and 7.04 (1.2.1.). The course is in compliance with IMO Model Course 3.17.         Learning outcomes of Course unit         Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:         - Follow basic technical (maritime) literature in English, especially related to maritime industry, ships and crew.         - Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities.         - Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum.         Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.         Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)         METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         Test I: 30 points;         Attendance: 10 points         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.	University of Montenegro
Type and level of studies: Undergraduate studies         Course unit: English Language II         Teacher in charge: Milena Dzeverdanovic Pejovic, Associate Professor         Language of instruction: English         ECTS: 3         Course load: 2L+1E+0P         Semester: Summer         Course unit objective         The course aims is to enable the students to successfully communicate and follow literature in English, according STCW'10 and IMO 7.02 and 7.04 (1.2.1.). The course is in compliance with IMO Model Course 3.17.         Learning outcomes of Course unit         Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:         - Follow basic technical (maritime) literature in English, especially related to maritime industry, ships and crew.         - Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities.         - Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum.         Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.         Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)         METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         Test I: 30 points;         Final exam: 30 points;         Attendance: 10 points         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cu	Faculty of Maritime Studies Kotor
Type and level of studies: Undergraduate studies         Course unit: English Language II         Teacher in charge: Milena Dzeverdanovic Pejovic, Associate Professor         Language of instruction: English         ECTS: 3         Course load: 2L+1E+0P         Semester: Summer         Course unit objective         The course aims is to enable the students to successfully communicate and follow literature in English, according STCW'10 and IMO 7.02 and 7.04 (1.2.1.). The course is in compliance with IMO Model Course 3.17.         Learning outcomes of Course unit         Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:         - Follow basic technical (maritime) literature in English, especially related to maritime industry, ships and crew.         - Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities.         - Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum.         Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.         Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)         METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         Test I: 30 points;         Final exam: 30 points;         Attendance: 10 points         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cu
Course unit: English Language II Teacher in charge: Milena Dzeverdanovic Pejovic, Associate Professor Language of instruction: English ECTS: 3 Course load: 2L+1E+0P Semester: Summer Course unit objective The course aims is to enable the students to successfully communicate and follow literature in English, according STCW'10 and 1MO 7.02 and 7.04 (1.2.1.). The course is in compliance with IMO Model Course 3.17. Learning outcomes of Course unit Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to: - Follow basic technical (maritime) literature in English, especially related to maritime industry, ships and crew Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum. Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations. Examination methods ( maximum 100 points) METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING: Test I: 30 points; Attendance: 10 points Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively. Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively Grading system Grade No. of points A 90-100 Excellent B A 90-100 Excellent B B 80-89 Exceptionally good C 70-79 Very good D C 70-79 Very good C E 50-59 Passing	Study program: Marine Engineering
Teacher in charge: Milena Dzeverdanovic Pejovic, Associate Professor         Language of instruction: English         ECTS: 3         Course load: 2L+1E+0P         Semester: Summer         Course and tobjective         The course aims is to enable the students to successfully communicate and follow literature in English, according STCW'10 and IMO 7.02 and 7.04 (1.2.1.). The course is in compliance with IMO Model Course 3.17.         Learning outcomes of Course unit       Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:         - Follow basic technical (maritime) literature in English, especially related to maritime industry, ships and crew.         - Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities.         - Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum.         Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.         Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)         METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         Test 1: 30 points;         Tiral exam: 30 points;         Tiral exam: 30 points;         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Grading system </td <td colspan="3">Type and level of studies: Undergraduate studies</td>	Type and level of studies: Undergraduate studies
Language of instruction: English         ECTS: 3         Course load: 2L+1E+0P         Semester: Summer         Course unit objective         The course aims is to enable the students to successfully communicate and follow literature in English, according STCW'10 and IMO 7.02 and 7.04 (1.2.1.). The course is in compliance with IMO Model Course 3.17.         Learning outcomes of Course unit         Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:         - Follow basic technical (maritime) literature in English, especially related to maritime industry, ships and crew.         - Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities.         - Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum.         Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.         Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)         METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         Test I: 30 points;         Final exam: 30 points;         Grading system         Grade       No. of points	Course unit: English Language II
ECTS: 3       Course load: 2L+1E+0P         Semester: Summer       Course unit objective         The course aims is to enable the students to successfully communicate and follow literature in English, according STCW'10 and IMO 7.02 and 7.04 (1.2.1.). The course is in compliance with IMO Model Course 3.17.         Learning outcomes of Course unit       Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:         - Follow basic technical (maritime) literature in English, especially related to maritime industry, ships and crew.         - Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities.         - Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum.         Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.         Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)         METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         Test I: 30 points;         Final exam: 30 points;         Final exam: 30 points;         Attendance: 10 points         Orading system         Grade       No. of points         A       90-100         Exceptionally good         C       70-79         Very good       C         B       80-89       Exceptionally good         C       70-79	Teacher in charge: Milena Dzeverdanovic Pejovic, Associate Professor
Course load: 2L+1E+0P         Semester: Summer         Course unit objective         The course aims is to enable the students to successfully communicate and follow literature in English, according STCW'10 and IMO 7.02 and 7.04 (1.2.1.). The course is in compliance with IMO Model Course 3.17.         Learning outcomes of Course unit         Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:         - Follow basic technical (maritime) literature in English, especially related to maritime industry, ships and crew.         - Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities.         - Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum.         Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.         Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)         METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         Test I: 30 points;         Test I: 30 points;         Final exam: 30 points;         Final exam: 30 points;         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         B       80-89       Exceptionally good <t< td=""><td colspan="3">Language of instruction: English</td></t<>	Language of instruction: English
Semester: Summer         Course unit objective         The course aims is to enable the students to successfully communicate and follow literature in English, according STCW'10 and IMO 7.02 and 7.04 (1.2.1.). The course is in compliance with IMO Model Course 3.17.         Learning outcomes of Course unit         Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:         - Follow basic technical (maritime) literature in English, especially related to maritime industry, ships and crew.         - Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities.         - Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum.         Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.         Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)         METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         Test I: 30 points;         Tinal exam: 30 points;         Final exam: 30 points;         Final exam: 30 points;         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         B       80-89         Excellent         B       80-89         Exceptionally good         C	ECTS: 3
Course unit objective         The course aims is to enable the students to successfully communicate and follow literature in English, according STCW'10 and IMO 7.02 and 7.04 (1.2.1). The course is in compliance with IMO Model Course 3.17.         Learning outcomes of Course unit         Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:         - Follow basic technical (maritime) literature in English, especially related to maritime industry, ships and crew.         - Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities.         - Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum.         Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.         Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)         METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         Test I: 30 points;         Final exam: 30 points;         Pister grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         A       90-100       Excellent         B       80-889       Exceptionally good         C       70-79       Very good         D       60-69       Good         Examination methods       Good	Course load: 2L+1E+0P
The course aims is to enable the students to successfully communicate and follow literature in English, according STCW'10 and IMO 7.02 and 7.04 (1.2.1.). The course is in compliance with IMO Model Course 3.17.         Learning outcomes of Course unit       Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:         - Follow basic technical (maritime) literature in English, especially related to maritime industry, ships and crew.         - Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities.         - Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum.         Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.         Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)         METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         Test 1: 30 points;         Tist 1: 30 points;         Pisitive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Grade       No. of points         A       90-100         Excellent         B       80-89         Excellent         B       80-89         Excellent         B       80-89         Excellent         B       80-89         Excellent	Semester: Summer
STCW'10 and IMO 7.02 and 7.04 ( 1.2.1.). The course is in compliance with IMO Model Course 3.17.         Learning outcomes of Course unit         Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:       -         - Follow basic technical (maritime) literature in English, especially related to maritime industry, ships and crew.       -         - Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities.       -         - Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum.       -         Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.         Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)         METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         Test I: 30 points;       -         Final exam: 30 points;       -         Final exam: 30 points;       -         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.       -         Grading system         A       90-100       Excellent         B       80-89       Exceptionally good       -         C       70-79       Very good       -       -       -         Grade       06-69       Good       -       -       -	•
Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:         - Follow basic technical (maritime) literature in English, especially related to maritime industry, ships and crew.         - Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities.         - Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum.         Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.         Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)         METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         Test I: 30 points;         Test I: 30 points;         Final exam: 30 points;         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Grading system         Attendance: 10 points         Grading system         A       90-100         A       90-100         B       80-89         B       80-89         Exceptionally good       C       70-79       Very good         C       70-79       Very good       60-69       Good         B       60-69       Good       60-69       60-69       60-69
<ul> <li>Follow basic technical (maritime) literature in English, especially related to maritime industry, ships and crew.</li> <li>Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities.</li> <li>Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum.</li> <li>Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.</li> <li>Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)</li> <li>METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         <ul> <li>Test I: 30 points;</li> <li>Test I: 30 points;</li> <li>Final exam: 30 points;</li> <li>Attendance: 10 points</li> </ul> </li> <li>Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.</li> <li>Grading system</li> <li>Grade No. of points</li> <li>Methods</li> <li>B 80-89</li> <li>Exceptionally good</li> <li>C 70-79</li> <li>Very good</li> <li>D</li> <li>Good</li> <li>Exceptionally good</li> </ul>	Learning outcomes of Course unit crew Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum. Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations. Examination methods ( maximum 100 points) METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING: Test 1: 30 points; Test 1: 30 points; Final exam: 30 points; Final exam: 30 points; Attendance: 10 points Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively. Grading system Grade No. of points Description A 90-100 Excellent B 80-89 Exceptionally good C 70-79 Very good D 60-69 Good E 50-59 Passing <ul> <li>Understand and communicate upon basics of maritime industry, ship's operation, crew hierarchy, duties and responsibilities.</li> <li>Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum.</li> <li>Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.</li> <li>Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)</li> <li>METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         <ul> <li>Test I: 30 points;</li> <li>Test II: 30 points;</li> <li>Final exam: 30 points;</li> <li>Attendance: 10 points</li> <li>Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Grading system</li> <li>Grade</li> <li>No. of points</li> <li>Description</li> <li>Exceptionally good</li> <li>C</li> <li>70-79</li> <li>Very good</li> <li>D</li> <li>Good</li> <li>E</li> <li>50-59</li> <li>Passing</li> </ul> and responsibilities. - Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum. Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations. Examination methods ( maximum 100 points) METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING: Test I: 30 points; Test II: 30 points; Final exam: 30 points; Attendance: 10 points Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively. Final exam: 30 points Carading system Grading system A 90-100 Excellent B 80-89 Exceptionally good C 70-79 Very good D 60-69 Good E 50-59 Passing <ul> <li>Successfully communicate, both orally and in writing, using technical maritime English, in accordance with the taught curriculum.</li> <li>Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.</li> <li>Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)</li> <li>METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         <ul> <li>Test I: 30 points;</li> <li>Test II: 30 points;</li> <li>Final exam: 30 points;</li> <li>Attendance: 10 points</li> <li>Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Grade No. of points         <ul> <li>Grading system</li> <li>Excellent</li> <li>B</li> <li>B</li> <li>C</li> <li>Tor-79</li> <li>Very good</li> <li>Good</li> <li>Good</li> <li>E</li> <li>Good</li> <li>E</li> <li>S0-59</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
the taught curriculum. Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations. Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)  METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSIVENT AND MARKING: Test I: 30 points; Test I: 30 points; Final exam: 30 points; Final exam: 30 points; Attendance: 10 points Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively. Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.  Grading system Grade No. of points Exceptionally good C 70-79 Very good D 60-69 Good Exceptionally good Exceptionally good Exceptionally good Exceptionally good Passing	•
Examination methods ( maximum 100 points)METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING: Test I: 30 points; Test II: 30 points; Final exam: 30 points; Attendance: 10 pointsPositive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.Grading systemOf GradeNo. of pointsDescriptionExcellentB80-89Exceptionally goodOO Very goodOO C70-79Very goodOO C70-79O CO CO C70-79O C70-79Very goodD60-69O C70-79Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.O CO D D D C D D D C D D C D D D C D
METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:         Test I: 30 points;         Test II: 30 points;         Final exam: 30 points;         Attendance: 10 points         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Grade       No. of points         A       90-100         B       80-89         C       70-79         Very good         D       60-69         Good       60-69         Passing	Teaching methods: Interactive classes, exercises, everyday consultation, everyday consultations.
Test I: 30 points; Test II: 30 points; Final exam: 30 points; Attendance: 10 pointsPositive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.Grading systemGradeNo. of pointsDescriptionA90-100ExcellentB80-89Exceptionally goodC70-79Very goodD60-69GoodE50-59Passing	Examination methods (maximum 100 points)
Test II: 30 points; Final exam: 30 points; Attendance: 10 pointsPositive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.Grading systemGradeNo. of pointsGradeNo. of pointsDescriptionA90-100ExcellentB80-89Exceptionally goodC70-79Very goodD60-69GoodE50-59Passing	METHODS OF KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT AND MARKING:
Final exam: 30 points; Attendance: 10 pointsPositive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.Grading systemGradeNo. of pointsDescriptionA90-100ExcellentB80-89Exceptionally goodC70-79Very goodD60-69GoodE50-59Passing
Attendance: 10 points         Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.         Grading system         Grade       No. of points       Description         A       90-100       Excellent         B       80-89       Exceptionally good         C       70-79       Very good         D       60-69       Good         E       50-59       Passing
Positive grade requires not less than 50 points cumulatively.Grading systemGradeNo. of pointsDescriptionA90-100ExcellentB80-89Exceptionally goodC70-79Very goodD60-69GoodE50-59Passing
Grading systemGradeNo. of pointsDescriptionA90-100ExcellentB80-89Exceptionally goodC70-79Very goodD60-69GoodE50-59Passing
A         90-100         Excellent           B         80-89         Exceptionally good           C         70-79         Very good           D         60-69         Good           E         50-59         Passing
B80-89Exceptionally goodC70-79Very goodD60-69GoodE50-59Passing	Grade	No. of points	Description
C         70-79         Very good           D         60-69         Good           E         50-59         Passing	Α	90-100	Excellent
D         60-69         Good           E         50-59         Passing	В	80-89	Exceptionally good
E 50-59 Passing	С	70-79	Very good
	D	60-69	Good
	E	50-59	Passing
	F	less than 50	Failing	