New paper added to Olympic Games:

M.B. Duignan & I. Pappaleore (2019): Visitor (im)mobility, leisure consumption and mega-event impact: the territorialisation of Greenwich and...

Focusing on the London 2012 Olympic Games, we investigate the impact of mega-sport events' spatial transformations on visitor mobility, local leisure consumption and resulting small business trade. Olympic territorialisation, we argue, is a highly contentious and vitally important aspect of leisure studies warranting on-going and further examination. Our case study draws on 43 in-depth interviews with local authorities, governmental and non-governmental project actors, and s...read more
